

Educational Objectives	1) Aim to improve the public health and the life quality	2) Have the theoretical knowledge and the practical skills about investigation, preparation, testing, storage, protection, presentation to the patients, accurate usage and the adverse effects of the pharmaceutical compounds	3) Are able to provide service to the other health care providers and the patients	4) Contribute to drug prescription and follow-up the treatment	5) Have effective communication skills	6) Are investigative, lifelong learner and ethic	7) Have social and universal qualifications
Program Outcomes
1) To possess critical thinking, speaking and writing abilities	X	X					X
2) To practice her job according to the existing laws and the regulations							X
3) To adhere to ethical and deontological principles		X
4) To take initiative	X	X		X			X
5) To participate to the research, the development and the production of natural, synthetic or biologic pharmaceutical active substances and excipients	X	X
6) To take necessary precautions for safe drug usage and to encourage rational drug usage	X			X
7) To follow the developments in the field using her foreign language skills	X			X			